

RCA TUBES FOR AMATEURS

Now at New Low Prices!

WAS $4.50
NOW $3.45

RCA 801

Triode, carbon-anode type. Max. ratings of 600 plate volts, 60 plate milliamperes up to 60 megacycles. Particularly popular for 5-meter transmitters.

WAS $38.50
NOW $34.50

RCA 803

Pentode, carbon-anode type, outstanding for grid-or suppressor-modulated service. No neutralization as Class C Amp. Max. ratings of 2000 plate volts, 175 plate milliamperes up to 20 megacycles.

WAS $18.00
NOW $15.00

RCA 805

An improved carbon-anode type of the so-called "50-watt" family, suitable for all services. Max. ratings of 1500 plate volts, 210 plate milliamperes up to 30 megacycles.

WAS $16.00
NOW $15.00

RCA 845

The standard carbon-anode triode for Class A Modulators.

WERE $5.80
NOW $5.00

RCA 954, 956

WAS $3.75
NOW $3.00

RCA 955

The sensational acorn family for ultra-high frequency application.

WAS $18.00
NOW $15.00

RCA 906

The first and leading cathode-ray type for amateur use. Use the RCA-906 in your modulation monitor and be sure of your quality.

Prices effective March 1, 1937

SEE OTHER RCA PAGE ALSO IN THIS ISSUE

for Amateur Radio

QST March 1937

AMATEUR RADIO SECTION

RCA Manufacturing Co., Inc., Camden, N. J. · A Service of the Radio Corporation of America